CASPIAN LAKE NOTES
Concert By The Country Club Thursday Evening.

The Country Club gives its annual concert on Thursday of this week and it is hoped there will be many visitors from outside the town. These concerts are always of a high order and could hardly be duplicated elsewhere in the state.

The soloists come from several of the large cities from Boston to Chicago, but the playing of no one is enjoyed more than that of Miss Helen Boynton, violinist, of St. Johnsbury.

On Friday afternoon some of the ladies of the Country Club gave an afternoon tea for the men. Mrs. Sanborn, Mrs. Sibly, Mrs. Hardy, Mrs. Cutler and Mrs. Stone were hostesses. Nearly 100 were present and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed.

On Thursday evening Dr. Gillies of Minneapolis gave an excellent lecture at the Congregational church for the Free Library. His subject was "The Art of Grooming." Dr. Gillies was a former Vermont pastor. His preaching is almost as good as his golf; that is very good. He has bought a lot and expects to permanently join the colony.

The Barrows of Johnson, who have occupied the Morrow cottage since June, returned home on Thursday, the Morrows coming the next morning to remain until the late fall.

The annual golf match for the Sanborn cup was played last week. Dr. Gillies and Mr. Haggood are the finalists. They play off at 36 holes this week.
